

TO GIVE LASSITER A BIG SEND-OFF

Arrangements for a Mass Meeting When Committee Meets to Declare Him Nominee.

TO APPOINT POLICE JUSTICE

Salaries of City Engineer and Health Officer Both Increased.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., June 5.—The city Democratic central committee to-night appointed a sub-committee of four, including Chairman John B. Evans, as executive chairman, to make arrangements for a mass meeting at the Academy of Music, Friday night, June 15th, when the Fourth District Democratic Committee will meet, according to the call of Judge A. D. Watkins, chairman, and declare Major F. R. Lassiter, of this city, the Democratic nominee for Congress, all other candidates for the nomination having withdrawn.

Invitations to the meeting will be sent to Governor Swanson, Senators Daniel and Martin, the Virginia Congressmen and the Democratic county chairman and other prominent Democrats.

W. T. Mulcaha, and Drs. Wm. Pilcher and J. M. Burke are members of the sub-committee, with Chairman Evans.

The City Council this evening resolved to the finance committee, a resolution requesting Judge J. M. Mullen, of the Corporation Court, to appoint a police justice, which, if done, will do away with the present system of trying all police court cases before the mayor.

The Council confirmed the contract for sidewalk improvement and sewer extension made with the Southern Contracting Company, of Norfolk, by the special committee on sewers and sidewalks.

The salaries of the city engineer and the health officer were increased to eighteen hundred and twelve hundred dollars, respectively.

GOOD ROADS.

Mass Meeting Under Auspices of National Association.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BEDFORD CITY, June 5.—A convention was opened this morning under the auspices of the National Good Roads Association at the Alliance Warehouse Association at the Alliance Warehouse. Rev. C. Mayor Hunter, of the Baptist Church, pronounced an invocation, after which the convention was opened by the mayor. Hon. T. C. W. Collins, of the county, made many pertinent remarks in regard to road improvement and the advanced standard of the county taken for next in that direction.

Colonel W. H. Moore, president of the National Good Roads Association, made an interesting address. He advocated the enforcement of the vagrancy laws as one means of securing labor for roads and harbors, and urged the use of convict labor upon the public highways. He urged the formation of civic leagues among the women of the town and county, and suggested the planting of trees along the public highways as one good work the women of the county could engage in.

At the conclusion of his address, committee members appointed by the chairman for organization.

Mr. S. M. Bolling concluded the morning session with some statistics of the work done in the past five years on road improvement, the aggregation of which is $87,156.67, an average of $17,433.33 a year.

A BIG ENTERPRISE.

An Electric Road Up and Down the Rappahannock.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MORRISVILLE, VA., June 5.—Mr. Heskiah Embrey and brother, of Embrey, sold their mill, farm and valuable water power on the Rappahannock River at Embrey, to Mr. J. P. Tyson, of Warrenton, who will probably purchase another place of their land further up the river with a frontage of a mile or the river.

New York syndicate are securing all the best water power along the Rappahannock River and making large purchases of land lying along said river, with the intention of building an electric road up and down the river and establishing enormous power plants.

Mr. Tyson stated that dams would be built at Embrey and W. S. Ford. Mr. George Gould is reported to be at the head of the new company.

YOUNG MAN'S SUICIDE.

Bad Health Led Him to the Deed of Self-Destruction.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PLUM POINT, VA., June 5.—Dennis Robbins, a young man eighteen years of age, living in the lower part of this county, shot himself Sunday with a pistol through the heart and died instantly. Young Robbins had been in bad health for about twelve months. He went to Baltimore to a hospital for some time, but no relief was afforded. He committed the deed of self-destruction a few days after his return to his home.

Church Dedication.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., June 5.—The W. R. D. Memorial Baptist Church, near Brooke, in Stafford county, was dedicated on Sunday. Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway, of this city, preached the dedicatory sermon. There were all-day services and dinner on the grounds. A large crowd was present.

Big Ship in Roads.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., June 5.—The big battleship Kentucky is now in Hampton Roads, and will come up to the Norfolk Navy Yard for an overhauling as soon as room can be made for her now among other big ships there.

GIRL IS WHIPPED WITH HEAVY CORD

Her Father, Who Was Fined, Claims She Had Acted Indiscretely.

WELTS ON HER SHOULDERS

Girl Claims Father Was Drunk and Assaulted Her Without Reason.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., June 5.—Samuel McKnowen, a carpenter, living at No. 214 Granville avenue, arrested last night at the Union Mission for flogging with a heavy cord and threatening to kill his sixteen-year-old daughter, Mary, was fined fifty dollars and costs in the police court to-day.

The girl herself was at the mission when McKnowen was arrested. She had a letter from Justice of the Peace A. J. Dalton to Superintendent Ryno, and was in quest of a night's lodging. Justice Dalton also advised Mr. Ryno to cause the arrest of McKnowen should he attempt any interference at the mission.

The girl was attired in black when she appeared at the mission. Her mother died about three months ago. On her shoulders and arms were welts, marks of the cord which the father had laid there.

For no apparent reason, she said, her father, who comes home intoxicated about once a week, assaulted her last night. After the flogging she first sought Chief of Police Boutwell, but being unable to find that officer, she called on Justice Dalton.

The girl said that she has been her father's housekeeper since the death of her mother.

McKnowen said that the girl had been acting indiscretely.

McKnowen applied from the fine, and was bailed in the sum of $100.

The daughter returned to the Union Mission with Mrs. Ryno.

WELCOME TO PASTOR.

Cordial Reception to Rev. E. H. Dickinson in Ashland.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHLAND, VA., June 5.—The newly-ordained pastor of St. James Episcopal church here, Rev. E. H. Dickinson, met with a cordial reception to-night and somewhat in the nature of a surprise. A reception was tendered him at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bridges. The house was tastefully decorated in crimson robes in great profusion, which about now in Ashland, and in field of the young ladies of the Altar Guild. Mr. Dickinson spoke in most encouraging words of the work which he is about to undertake here. The church is to be enlarged and a Sunday school room provided.

Among those who attended the reception to-night were the following: Bishop and Mrs. Granbery, Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Daddman, Rev. and Mrs. Lapsley, Rev. and Mrs. Seaman, Rev. and Mrs. Quarles, and Mrs. Phil. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll, Mr. and Mrs. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Prosser, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brainerd, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bridges, Rev. Joshua Hunter, Mrs. E. C. Wright, Misses Wright, Mrs. A. E. Coulter and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dowell, Mr. and Mrs. John Addison, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Maury, Mrs. Annie Carr, Mrs. C. C. Brainerd, Miss Ethel Howard, Rev. J. Poyntz Tyler, Miss Mary Tyler, Rev. J. Lindsay Patton, Mrs. Patton, Miss Pauline Leake, Miss Lyle Leake, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carter, Mrs. Charles Stebbins, Miss Julia Weisger, Miss Mary Baldwin, Mr. Walter Baldwin, Miss Alice Howison, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Foy, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Fox, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Evans, Misses Evans, Mrs. Rice, Miss Lily Ryland, Miss Evie May, Mr. and Mrs. Ryland, Miss Hunter, Miss Annie Macon, Mrs. and Mrs. Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, Misses Fitch and Mrs. Newman, Miss Susie Patton, Miss Park Patton.

At the conclusion of his address, committee members appointed by the chairman for organization.

Mr. S. M. Bolling concluded the morning session with some statistics of the work done in the past five years on road improvement, the aggregation of which is $87,156.67, an average of $17,433.33 a year.

An Electric Road Up and Down the Rappahannock.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MORRISVILLE, VA., June 5.—Mr. Heskiah Embrey and brother, of Embrey, sold their mill, farm and valuable water power on the Rappahannock River at Embrey, to Mr. J. P. Tyson, of Warrenton, who will probably purchase another place of their land further up the river with a frontage of a mile or the river.

New York syndicate are securing all the best water power along the Rappahannock River and making large purchases of land lying along said river, with the intention of building an electric road up and down the river and establishing enormous power plants.

Mr. Tyson stated that dams would be built at Embrey and W. S. Ford. Mr. George Gould is reported to be at the head of the new company.

YOUNG MAN'S SUICIDE.

Bad Health Led Him to the Deed of Self-Destruction.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PLUM POINT, VA., June 5.—Dennis Robbins, a young man eighteen years of age, living in the lower part of this county, shot himself Sunday with a pistol through the heart and died instantly. Young Robbins had been in bad health for about twelve months. He went to Baltimore to a hospital for some time, but no relief was afforded. He committed the deed of self-destruction a few days after his return to his home.

Church Dedication.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., June 5.—The W. R. D. Memorial Baptist Church, near Brooke, in Stafford county, was dedicated on Sunday. Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway, of this city, preached the dedicatory sermon. There were all-day services and dinner on the grounds. A large crowd was present.

Big Ship in Roads.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., June 5.—The big battleship Kentucky is now in Hampton Roads, and will come up to the Norfolk Navy Yard for an overhauling as soon as room can be made for her now among other big ships there.

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. Bruce R. Payne Delivers the Alumni Address at Trinity.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DURHAM, N. C., June 5.—Trinity College commencement is full glow, and there are several hundred visitors in the city. At eleven o'clock the annual baccalaureate sermon was preached by Dr. Robert S. McArthur, of New York.

A business session of the trustees was held this morning and Dr. John C. Kilgus was granted a year's absence from the college, to be spent abroad, with full salary and all expenses paid. The board passed resolutions relating to the death of Dr. O. W. Cole, of Greensboro, who was a valuable member.

Senator Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury, was elected as trustee to succeed Dr. Cole.

The officers for the following year are: President, J. H. Southgate, vice-president, J. A. Gray, of Winston, and treasurer, T. M. Farr, of Charlotte.

Dr. Bruce R. Payne, of the University of Virginia, delivered the alumni address this evening at the annual meeting of the association. Dr. Payne delivered a splendid address, taking as his subject, "The Obligations of Education to Society." Following the address, there was a banquet by the association.

DR. KILGUS GIVEN A YEAR'S LEAVE

Will Travel Abroad With Full Salary and All Expenses Paid.

OVERMAN ELECTED TRUSTEE

Dr. Bruce R. Payne Delivers the Alumni Address at Trinity.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DURHAM, N. C., June 5.—Trinity College commencement is full glow, and there are several hundred visitors in the city. At eleven o'clock the annual baccalaureate sermon was preached by Dr. Robert S. McArthur, of New York.

A business session of the trustees was held this morning and Dr. John C. Kilgus was granted a year's absence from the college, to be spent abroad, with full salary and all expenses paid. The board passed resolutions relating to the death of Dr. O. W. Cole, of Greensboro, who was a valuable member.

Senator Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury, was elected as trustee to succeed Dr. Cole.

The officers for the following year are: President, J. H. Southgate, vice-president, J. A. Gray, of Winston, and treasurer, T. M. Farr, of Charlotte.

Dr. Bruce R. Payne, of the University of Virginia, delivered the alumni address this evening at the annual meeting of the association. Dr. Payne delivered a splendid address, taking as his subject, "The Obligations of Education to Society." Following the address, there was a banquet by the association.

Officers of the Alumni Association elected were: President, Dr. W. G. Bradsher, High Point; first vice-president, R. L. Durham, of Charlotte; second vice-president, G. I. Watson, of Hyde county; secretary and treasurer, R. L. Flowers, of Durham, and chairman of the executive committee, C. W. Edwards, of Durham.

This evening at 8:30 o'clock the oratorical contest for the Willey-Wiley Gray medal was held at the residence of Dr. O. W. Cole.

The speakers and subjects were: "The Rural South," C. R. Warren; "The Power of Methodism," Z. E. Barnhardt; "A Call for Civil Righteousness," C. R. Rugh; and "The American Press and American Public Opinion," S. B. Underwood. The contest was won by S. B. Underwood.

COLD-BLOODED MURDER.

Paul Johnson Shot and Killed Henry Miller With Shotgun.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GOLDSBORO, VA., June 5.—Paul Johnson shot and killed Henry Miller, another colored man, at a late hour last night in Little Washington, a suburb of this city, occupied exclusively by colored people.

A pair of pants caused the dispute which resulted in the shooting. Johnson, who was a negro, was pressing a club to get a pair of pants, which he had left there. Miller was temporarily in a hurry to get the pants without the money. This brought on a difficulty, in which Miller, who was a much larger negro, used a club on Johnson. The men were separated, and the affair was thought to be settled. Johnson came up the street to the Avery stable, where he worked, and secured a shotgun. He returned to Little Washington and met Miller on the street. Without warning Johnson put his gun up to his shoulder and fired a load of shot into the head of Miller, who fell dead on the street.

The shooting was done at close range, and the load of shot entered the wound in the side of Miller's head. As soon as Miller fell, Johnson made a break to run, and was interrupted by a crowd of negroes who held him back in his heel. Johnson then had no further trouble in making good his escape.

BUILDING AND LOAN.

New Census Shows Large Increase in the Twin City.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., June 5.—The State Building and Loan League, which is holding its annual convention here this afternoon, has just received word that there were eighteen associations in the league, and that they represent $89,999,999 shares, of the value of $5,000,000. To-night the visitors were tendered a reception and smoker at the Elks' club-rooms.

The census of Winston-Salem and her suburbs, just completed by the W. H. Walsh Directory Company, and according to the sworn statement of the men in charge of the work, the Twin City and suburbs has a population of 23,882. This is a large increase in population since the last census, taken in 1900, the population at that time being about 15,000.

Traded a Slapper.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., June 5.—Fritz Bierman, the shortstop on the Danville baseball team, who was recently suspended in the fourth game of the league, left this afternoon for Augusta, Ga., where he will play in the South Atlantic League.

He was traded for Howard, a pitcher, who played last year with the Charlotte, N. C. team.

Will Succeed Harrington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., June 5.—The report that Captain U. B. Berry, U. S. N., now in command of the navy yard, U. S. Navy, would succeed Rear-Admiral F. H. Harrington, in command of the Norfolk navy yard, has been confirmed. Captain Berry will assume command on July 7th.

Richmonders on List.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BALTIMORE, MD., June 5.—Among the university faculty who announced last night by the trustees of the Johns Hopkins University are Douglas Southall Freeman, of Richmond, history, and Henry C. Carrington, of Richmond, romance languages.

Regular Jumbos.

"Yes," said Kilder, describing his travels, "there's a species of ant in India that grows to really enormous size."

"You don't say?" exclaimed Miss Gull. "Really. They are called Eleph ants, and one of them can easily carry a man on its back."

"Good gracious! The idea!"—The Catholic Standard and Times.

Not Like Him.

Spacewright: "Did you read our story of the Horse Show?"

Reader: "Yes, Why?"

Spacewright: "Well, didn't you recognize my style? wasn't it like me?"

Reader: "I can't say that. It was. It didn't have a very big head."—The Catholic Standard and Times.

"Old Grimeson is terrible close, isn't he?"

"Close? He's close, but he lives out in the open in order to keep from being out of his back teeth."—Chicago Record-Herald.

COL. A. G. DICKINSON DIES IN NEW YORK

Served in Confederate War, Winning Renown and Fame, and Was Well Known.

Colonel A. G. Dickinson, late of the Confederate army, who was well known in Richmond, died in his home, No. 891 Central Park, West, New York city, on Tuesday.

Colonel Dickinson was born in Caroline county, Va., in 1835. On his mother's side he was related to the Magruder family, famous in the military history of the country. He received a military school education, and afterwards moved to New Orleans, where he married and became a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a commercial career that was successful to the end. He was a name cut short by the outbreak of the Civil War. He threw his fortunes with his native state, and a soldier served with great bravery and renown, receiving wide recognition. After the war he went to New York, where he entered upon a